The ryots of the Hasoodi Village represented to the 2d Asstt Commr Mr Tirumalachar the unhealthy state of the village and asked for permission to build new houses on survey No 71. They also agreed to give up the old village site entirely.

Mr Tirumalachar inspected the village in March last when he found that the old village site was rocky that the sanitary condition of the place was most unfavorable and that the population was gradually decreasing. Mr Tirumalachar accordingly ected the ryots, in anticipation of Government sanction d their houses on the spot selected, which is a land and reported the fact to the Deputy Commissioner mmends that the old village site may be assessed and ivation.

is to be vacated.
